

Get to Know Your Facilitator

Lorinda Schrammel

Lorinda is the Owner and Chief Excellence Officer for Growth Training and Consulting and has been involved in talent development for over twenty-five years. Lorinda previously served as the Director of Talent Development at Oklahoma State University. Lorinda is a certified Gallup strengths coach, a past TedX speaker and holds a variety of training certifications in various disciplines with focus in supervisory and leadership training. Lorinda has served in leadership roles in the Association for Talent Development and most recently served a three-year term as a National Advisor to Chapters for the organization.

A long-time friend and colleague of BIGiOK, we're thrilled to get to extend the impact Lorinda has had on our member organizations by sharing this brilliant program content.